

The Emerging Opportunities program supports collaborative sustainability research and assessment activities that span multiple disciplines and sectors and connect science to real-world decisions and actions. To support these efforts, which range from one-time meetings and workshops to multi-year projects, we offer a variety of regular funding opportunities and resources.

	FAST TRACK GRANTS	CATALYST GRANTS	TRANSFORMATION GRANTS	OTHER SUPPORT AND RESOURCES
ACTIVITIES	Work requiring limited funding (research related travel, subject payment, supplies, research assistance, small equipment)	Conferences, Project Planning, White Papers, Workshops	Collaborative Research and Assessment Initiatives	Faculty Networking Meetings, Stakeholder Engagement, Project Management and Evaluation, Special Initiatives
LEVEL OF SUPPORT	Up to $2,500 per award	Up to $10,000 per award	Up to $100,000 per year. Requires 50% match	Graham Staff
	3- to 6-months	8-month grant period	1-2 year grant period
	4-6 grants per semester, on a rolling basis until funds committed	Up to 6 awards annually 2-4 grants per funding cycle	2 new grants per year
SCHEDULE	Fall and Winter RFPs	Fall and Winter RFPs	Fall RFP	Ongoing

Full details, including eligibility and review criteria and application instructions, are included in Requests for Proposals posted on the Graham Sustainability Institute website. On the website you can also learn about previously funded projects, and faculty and researchers can register for networking events.

LEARN MORE:
graham.umich.edu/emopps

CONTACT:
John Callewaert, Emerging Opportunities Director | 734-615-3752 | jcallew@umich.edu